Prosser Project Hearing Slated Tuesday In Reno

Senator Malone to Preside Over Hearings On Alternate Plans

Senator George W. Malone (R-Nev.) will preside at a meeting of the U. S. Senate subcommittee on public works, which will be conducted in Reno on Tuesday, August 26, concerning the Truckee River development program.

The sessions, which will be open to the public, will be held in the chamber of commerce auditorium of the State Building, opposite the court house in Reno. The hearings will begin at 10 a.m. and continue throughout the day. A. M. Smith is handling arrangements and reservations on behalf of the Reno chamber.

The program, Malone says, has been in the planning stage for six years and contemplates flood control work on the river and construction of a huge water storage reservoir on Prosser Creek, a tributary of the Truckee just west of Boca.

Plan Development

Plans for development of the Truckee River's irrigation, recreational and hydroelectric potential are projected around a proposal by the U. S. bureau of reclamation, an alternative by the Truckee-Carson Water Users Committee and seven other plans based upon but varying from these two basic propositions.

The maximum program would provide for reducing the maximum level of Lake Tahoe from 6229.1 to 6228.0, excavating the channel of the Truckee River for approximately 3200 feet and transferring the 1.1 feet from Tahoe into a reservoir on Prosser Creek. A diversion dam just west of the town of Truckee would channel the water into a system of conduits and tunnels to the Prosser Reservoir, which would have a storage capacity of 134,500 acre feet.

New Power Plants

Also contemplated under this plan would be new power plants at the confluence of the Truckee with Prosser Creek, at Hirschdale and Floriston.

A 194-feet high earthfill dam would also be built on the Little Truckee River just below the mouth of Stampede Valley. Water would be tunneled from there to the Truckee River near Verdi, where another power plant is contemplated.

In all there are nine variants of this program being studied.

Edmunds to Attend

Cecil Edmunds, manager of the Truckee Public Utility District, will attend the session next Tuesday, at the invitation of Senator Malone. Edmunds points out that the program has been under study since 1938 and hopes that these hearings may expedite action for the development of the area.

Edmunds estimated a maximum program would cost between forty and fifty million dollars.

BISHOP SPEAKER FOR LIONS HERE

Bishop Noel Porter of the Sacramento Episcopal Diocese spoke before the Lions Club at Donner Lake Lodge last night, giving one of his usual interesting and entertaining discussions. Also on the program was Ben Jenne, district governor of the Lions.

Guests included George Bergen, new high school principal here; James Cooper and James Bays of Truckee, Ed Smith of Winnemucca, Nev., and Howard L. and Lee Slinkhard, both of Whittier.

Charles R. Heller was the program chairman and Angelo Besio presided.

Brothers Fined $50 Each in Local Court

Clifton E. Busby, 23, Marina, and his brother, George T. Busby, 33, Susanville, were fined $50 each or sentenced to serve 25 days in jail following their conviction in the court of Judge F. W. Wilson on charges of violating the county sobriety ordinance.

The Busby brothers were arrested by State Patrolman Carroll Maynard after they went to sleep in their car parked on the highway near Hirschdale Saturday night.

Dr. Nelson at Lectures, Dr. Hahn Standing By

Dr. L. D. Nelson plans to attend the more important of a series of lectures in Reno today and tomorrow during the joint sessions of the Nevada State Medical Association and the Reno Surgical Society. Some of the nation's most outstanding physicians and surgeons will lecture on various modern medical topics.

During the doctor's absence from his office, Dr. George Hahn, awaiting his discharge from the service, will substitute.

Brazil Officials Here For Study Of State Station

Two representatives of the Ministry of Agriculture of the government of Brazil were guests of Lloyd Cranford, supervisor of the Nevada border stations, and Orval A. Vaughn, inspector in charge of the Truckee quarantine station, this week.

Senors Oliviera and Viera are top representatives of their country's entomology and plant quarantine service. They were sent to this country under the Point 4 program.

The Truckee border station was chosen for their observation and study because it is considered one of the state's leading stations. Although the Yermo station outside of Barstow exceeds this one in traffic, the Truckee station handles more trucks and buses.

Not only did the visitors enjoy their visit at the quarantine station but were were thrilled at the beautiful, tree-studded mountains surrounding Truckee. What little snow that remains on Donner Summit was the first they had ever seen.

JUVENILE RELATES SORDID ADVENTURE ON NEVADA RIDE

KINGS BEACH— A tale of mistreatment and sordid occurrences was related by a 12-year-old Las Vegas boy who was picked up by authorities at Crystal Bay Tuesday morning after he said he was abandoned by a guard transporting four prisoners, including the boy, from Las Vegas to Elko.

The guard, Walter Sefton, 32, was later apprehended and is being held for questioning. The other three juveniles were with Sefton.

The boy told officers Sefton was taking him to an industrial school near Elko, along with three other juveniles, including a 16 year old girl. He told a lengthy story of burglaries and drinking bouts by Sefton and others en route. The boy's face was swollen and discolored, bearing out a story of mistreatments.

Sefton was accompanied by his mother on part of the trip but the latter was left at Fallon, the boy said. Usually Sefton's father accompanied the prisoners, but was prevented on this trip and his son replaced him, it was reported.

An investigation by officers led deputies to announce that the boy's story is quite plausible.

Joe Mattos Buys Pace House on West River

Joe Mattos this week announced that he has purchased the George Pace residence on West River Street and that he and Mrs. Mattos will move to their new home in the near future.

Mattos also recently purchased the Henry Williams' home on the same street but has rented that place to Sergeant Frank Smith of the highway patrol. Smith expects to move to the new home early in September after Mr. and Mrs. Williams leave for Sacramento following the former's retirement from the Southern Pacific.

Driver Appearing Today For Sentencing by Judge

Frank Lewis, 51, Vallejo, was arrested by State Patrolman Carroll Maynard Sunday night on a drunk driving charge after Lewis allegedly drove his car down the middle of main street without lights. Officers said investigation revealed that the accused was fined $200 in Vallejo after being arrested on a similar charge on July 2 and on July 20 his driver's license was suspended.

Lewis will appear for sentencing this afternoon before Judge F. W. Wilson, following a plea of guilty entered earlier.

JAY RABLIN BACK FROM ISLAND DUTY

Mr. and Mrs. John Rablin had a welcomed telephone call from their son, Jay, a teleman in the Navy, this morning from San Francisco, announcing that he had flown home from the Philippines where he has been on duty for several months. His family and friends are hopeful that his tour of foreign duty is permanently ended.

Propose Plan To To Destroy Old Historic Tower

Rocking Stone Tower Falls Into Serious Disrepair Legion is Told

A proposal to ask the county to demolish the old Rocking Stone Tower near the Veterans Memorial Building was discussed at Tuesday night's meeting of Truckee Post 439, American Legion.

The structure was at one time used as a conservatory and museum in connection with the palatial C. F. McGlashan home which stood on the site now occupied by the veterans' building. It survived the fire which destroyed the main structure in the early thirties and since the county built the memorial building, it has been variously used as an aircraft observation post during World War II and for a short time after was used as headquarters for the local Naval Reserve unit, but has for some time been unoccupied and unused.

It was pointed out by E. A. Parker that wood in the structure is becoming increasingly rotten, stairs leading up the giant boulder are deteriorating and the many windows around the sides have become favorite targets for youthful rock hurlers. He expressed fear that some youngster, playing on the walk around the building, might be seriously injured and pointed out that the cost of adequate repair would be a prohibitive drain on the local Veterans' Building budget as recently approved by the board of supervisors.

A plan has been put forward to tear down the tower and later place an ornamental iron railing around the remarkable and curious balanced boulder it houses. Action by the Legion was deferred pending a more thorough study.

DISTRICT SCHOOLS BEING INSULATED UNDER CONTRACT

Contract for the insulating of four school buildings of the Tahoe-Truckee Unified School District was awarded to the Yancey Company of Reno, it was learned today.

Schools of the district to be insulated include the Donner Trail elementary school, Kings Beach elementary school, Tahoe Lake elementary at Tahoe City and the Truckee elementary.

Company workmen began installation early this week in accordance with contract provisions set forth by the governing board of the school district.

Forest Fire Danger Indicator Installed

One of the two forest fire danger indicators installed by the Tahoe National Forest is located near the state's quarantine station east of Truckee.

Keith MacDonald, fire control officer for the forest, said the pointers on the large dials are changed daily to show fire conditions listed as low, medium, high and explosive. The danger factor is determined by wind velocity, relative humidity and fuel moisture content.

Another indicator is located at the White Cloud forest service campground on Highway 20 east of Nevada City and MacDonald said others will be installed on other traffic arteries through the Tahoe forest.

SP Tracks Serve WP Following Tunnel Fire

Traffic over the Southern Pacific through Truckee has been materially increased during the past week as the Western Pacific routed its trains through here. The WP line in the Feather River canyon was disabled a week ago when a fire broke out in a tunnel following the derailment of a freight train.

The WP line is expected to be opened again this weekend.

Paces Visit—

Mr. and Mrs. George Pace and sons of Sunnyvale visited relatives and friends and also transacted business here last week.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

The public hearing in Reno next Tuesday relative to the proposed hydro-electric project on the Truckee River, some times called the Prosser Project, has, or should have, considerable local interest. The development, if it progresses as planned, will mean a terrific expenditure for a few short years and this, no doubt, will give the area a financial "shot in the arm" so far as immediate business is concerned. However, what we should be particularly interested in is the long-range picture. For many years we have battled consistently to maintain a constant stream flow for the protection of the fish life in the Truckee and its tributary streams and this must now be more carefully watched than ever before. A clause which would prevent a diversion of all the water from the river at any time should be demanded. The Truckee River and its fishing provide one of our greatest assets and from a recreational standpoint now and in the future they must be closely guarded. Truckee representatives at the Reno meeting must voice this feeling and carry through on a demand for protection of the fish life. Planners and builders of projects of this magnitude seldom give serious thought to such a trivial matter as a few miles of fishing stream, so it is up to the people of the area, the chambers of commerce, service clubs and kindred organizations to insist upon this provision. Once the stream is lost, it may never come back, and while a constant flow may cause minor inconvenience at some time or another during construction, it will, in the long run, be of untold value to Truckee and the surrounding communities.

DOLLEY ASKS HELP TO CURB THIEVES. BEGGARS IN TOWN

Anyone observing suspicious vehicles or persons in places where they have no business is asked by Constable N. F. Dolley to report the fact to the officer immediately.

Dolley said this warning is a result of a series of thefts which have been reported locally and particularly along Donner Lake. Cars have been looted and a number of minor thefts of homes reported, the constable said.

Another undesirable character who is apparently finding it easy to operate in Truckee, Dolley declared, is the panhandler. He asks that these people be reported to the police to avoid embarrassment to tourists as well as local residents.

QUIT SEARCH FOR BODY AS MAN IS REPORTED IN N.Y.

Search for the body of Joseph J. Pash, 30 year old Berkeley student, in Baltimore Lake, 35 miles north of here, was abandoned Friday when officers learned the man had left four days previous to the finding of his clothing near the lake, going to New York.

Constable N. F. Dolley said he had been advised by Oakland police that Pash had visited the Baltimore Lake area earlier in the summer with a companion. Both returned home and it is believed Pash abandoned some of his old clothing and his fishing license near the lake.

The rubber boat found on the lake was identified as having been there for months.

It was at first feared Pash had gone fishing in the boat and had fallen overboard.

In Bay City—

Mr. and Mrs. George Kaspian and family were San Francisco visitors over the weekend.

Pack Trip—

District Ranger E. E. Boehm, R. E. Smart and Jay Patton are on a four-day pack trip into Hell Hole, the latter two accompanying Boehm on an inspection of the national forest area.

Heart Attack—

Percy English of Cisco is a patient at the Tahoe Forest Hospital where he is recovering from a recent heart attack.

New Manager Of Truckee Bank To Replace R. Scott

Bank Boss Here Five Years Will Manage Branch At Chowchilla

Robert E. Saunders Jr. has arrived here from Alturas to take over the management of the Truckee branch of Bank of America from Raymond A. Scott, who is being transferred to Chowchilla, where he will become manager of the bank's branch there.

Saunders, who has been with Bank of America since 1938, has held positions in San Francisco, Benicia, Ukiah, Gridley and Quincy, and for the past four and a half years has been cashier at Alturas.

The new manager came west from New York, where he was associated in the banking business, in 1935. His father is also identified with banking in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders will occupy the present home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott at Gateway Park when the latter leave it the end of next week. Scott will go to San Francisco for two weeks before taking over the Chowchilla branch. In the meantime, Mrs. Scott and their two daughters, Theo and Patricia, will visit with relatives in Susanville.

The Scotts, who came here from Grass Valley five years ago, have made scores of friends throughout the community who will sincerely regret their departure. Both have participated liberally in local civic affairs and their friendly services will be missed. At the same time, a welcome will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Saunders.

TRUCKEE SEAMAN, KOREA AREA VET, AT PEARL HARBOR

William C. Ramsey, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ramsey of Truckee, is serving aboard the anti-submarine destroyer USS Radford, which arrived recently at Pearl Harbor, T.H., after seven months in the Far East.

While in the Far East the Radford roamed both coasts of Korea bombarding Communist gun emplacements and other strategic targets. The versatile ship also operated with Task Force 77, was a unit of the UN Blockading and Escort Force, participated in anti-submarine warfare and sank mines.

JAMES LEAMONS TO LEAVE TRUCKEE

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Leamon are leaving this weekend to make their home at Willows, Glenn County, where the former will be employed by the California Department of Fish and Game as game conservationist aide.

The Leamons are well known here, where he attended the local schools prior to his entry into the armed services during the war. Later he was employed for several years at Rasco and more recently with the Mountain-Rotary Fuel Company.

During the past two school years Mrs. Leamon was employed as teacher in the Truckee elementary school's second grade, tendering her resignation at the end of the spring term.

Leamon has been active in outdoor sports and was affiliated with the Truckee Outing Club, the Sheriff's Ski Posse, the 20-30 Club, American Legion and other organizations.

The Leamons are well known here and their many friends will regret their departure from the community.

His lecture is entitled "Christian Science: God's Antidote for Trouble."

Fire Wipes Out Tahoe Dwelling; Gamblers Assist

CRYSTAL BAY— The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mayberry at Crystal Bay, Lake Tahoe, was completely destroyed Tuesday morning by a fire which for a while threatened the thickly populated area.

Nearby resorts closed their doors while employees—many of them in evening clothes—joined other volunteers in preventing a far more serious loss. At times the flames spread to trees in the vicinity but the fire was confined to the single dwelling.

The Kings Beach fire truck later joined the ranks of the volunteers and kept the fire from spreading.

While the cause of the fire was not immediately determined, it was believed to have started from a burning cigarette.

ROTARY MEETING INITIATES NEW CHURCH ADDITION

The new social room of the Truckee Community Methodist Church was used for the first time Monday when the Rotary Club gathered there for dinner and the evening's program. It was "ladies night" and nearly 100 per cent of the members and their wives attended.

Rev. A. A. Carmitchel and Clarence Tollefson, who have engineered the improvement program at the church, were the speakers, telling of the work which has been done during the past year. The edifice has been transposed into a modern structure, completely rebuilt and redecorated inside and out.

Guests Monday included Ralph Rowton, Soda Springs; M. E. Wood, Fair Oaks; Fred Jacobsen, San Valley, Colo.; Charles Frost Jr., Willows, and Jack Anderson, San Jose.

FOUR MORE FIRES IN TRUCKEE AREA OF TAHOE FOREST

Four more fires this week on the Truckee District of the Tahoe National Forest brought the total number for the current season to 19 and the man-caused blazes now exceed those caused by lightning by a score of 10 to 9, the U. S. Forest Service reports.

An incipient blaze in Martis Valley on Wednesday afternoon brought out the suppression crew and, despite a strong wind, the blaze was confined to less than a quarter of acre. Another small blaze was started along Highway 40 just west of the highway patrol office Tuesday but was also quick-extinguished.

This morning Fire Control Assistant Nelson Stone left for Five Lakes where a small fire was reported but with apparently little damage or danger. The dwelling fire at Crystal Bay, reported elsewhere in this issue, brought the total for the week to four.

FREE CHEST X-RAY UNIT HERE FRIDAY

Members of the Truckee Parents and Teachers will assist in the work.

Everyone is urged to avail themselves of this opportunity for a chest examination. The process takes only a few minutes.

BASIC COUNTY RATE FOR YEAR IS $2.13

The board of supervisors yesterday adopted the 1952-53 budget as previously announced and set the basic county tax rate at $2.13. That will mean the range for this area, including various district taxes, will be from $4.05 to $4.93 per $100 assessed valuation, Chairman H. G. Loehr of Truckee announced.

Six Members Of Family Hurt In Local Accident

Several Others Are Injured In Highway Mishap Series

Seven auto accidents, one of which injured an entire family of six three miles east of here, were reported to the California Highway Patrol during the past week.

Stanley Antone Mortensen, 41, Sacramento, his wife, Anita, 36, and their four children, Connie, 13, Richard, 13, Ronnie, 5 and Randy, 3, were hurt when the car driven by Mortensen collided with an Inland Freight Lines truck just east of Truckee on a straight stretch of highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortensen were treated for major injuries but none of the children was seriously hurt. All were taken to the Tahoe Forest Hospital by Truckee ambulance.

State Patrolman Martin Sturcke said the accident occurred when the Mortensen car left the shoulder of the highway, struck a marker post and then swerved into the side of the big truck. The truck driver, William G. Brown, was not hurt.

Summit Men Hurt

Leo Edgar Guthrie, 43, and Van Rowe, 56, both of Soda Springs were hurt, the latter seriously, when a car driven by Guthrie ran off the highway 12 miles east of here Monday night at 11 o'clock. Guthrie was cited by Patrolman William Gautsche for driving without due caution and violating the county sobriety ordinance.

Guthrie told the officer lights from an approaching vehicle had blinded him.

-Truck Overturns

James J. Shannon, 35, Sacramento, driver for the Conyes Truck Lines, was not hurt when his big vehicle, loaded with hot road oil, overturned a quarter of a mile west of Soda Springs Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. State Patrolman Gautsche investigated and reported a car driven by Stanley Paul Matz, 45, San Bruno, apparently cut in on the truck, causing the driver to lose control. Matz was cited for reckless driving, the patrol reported.

Car Collide

Cars driven by Constantine Evanikoff, 23, San Francisco, and Antone R. Lorenzo, 30, Ferndale, collided Sunday a mile east of Hirschdale and the Lorenzo car was forced off the road. Patrolman Sturcke cited Lorenzo for failure to yield the right of way.

Overturns in Road

William C. Fleming, 31, was cited for drunk driving after his car overturned on the highway near Donner State Park, after skidding 430 feet. A hitchhiker, Forest H. Marr, 29, Richmond, and Fleming were treated at the hospital here by Dr. L. D. Nelson.

Patrolman Roy Stallard investigated the accident which occurred early Sunday morning.

Five Citations

Jessie deYoakum Mattubby, 29, San Francisco, was cited on five separate violations at 1 a.m. Sunday after his car plunged off the highway and lodged in the rocks near the junction of Highways 20 and 40. Mattubby and a passenger, Bernard O'Brien, San Francisco, were treated at the Tahoe Forest Hospital for minor injuries.

Patrolman Maynard issued citations for violating a restricted license, failure to stop at an arterial sign, driving without due caution, speeding and not having the vehicle under control on a mountain road.

Passes Border Station, Is Assessed $100 Fine

Judge Fosten Wilson imposed a fine of $100 Wednesday afternoon on Roy W. Ennis of Stockton for failure to stop at the local quarantine inspection station. The complaint against Ennis was signed by a member of the personnel at the station.

THOUSANDS WATCH CARNELIAN BAY SPEEDBOAT RACES

TAHOE CITY— Several thousand spectators viewed the 6th annual Coast Guard Regatta, under the auspices of Tahoe Flotilla 35, at Carnelian Bay. Weather was beautiful and water was perfect for the large entry list of boats which participated. Commander Fred Main did a first-rate job as announcer.

Top three placers in each event were as follows:

115 HP and under: Ernie Costa in Tony, 1st; Dave Anderson in Georgine, 2nd; Jay Murphy in MuvAlong, 3rd.

130 HP and under: Vernon Dallman Jr. in a Garwood, 1st; Ollie Greenlee in Let's Go Too, 2nd; Dave Anderson, 3rd.

165 HP and under: Charles Mapes in Gloria M, 1st; Al Wells in Liz, 2nd; Frank Kruse in a Cris-Craft, 3rd.

At this point Moreland Visel of Los Angeles gave the crowd a thrilling exhibition in his Hurricane IV, which is said to have attained a speed of approximately 150 miles per hour or more Sunday on the racing course. The crowd cheered and gazed in amazement. Bad luck struck the Hurricane on Saturday when on a trial run. About a quarter of a mile off shore she struck an obstruction in the water while making around 135 mph, tearing a hole in the sponson and pushing the topdeck up. She was driven under her own power to Henry J. Kaiser's boathouse nearby where no boat was on the track. As Visel drove her onto the tracks, her nose started to take a dive, the boat making barely in time to keep from sinking. Repairs were made and she was able to percolate Sunday, to the delight of spectators.

Announcement was then made of the sabotage of the Kaiser boat, Hot Metal, which was to have been entered in Sunday's races. Discussion of this phase of the story will be found in Swanee's Tahoe Letter this week.

The championship free for all: R. Stanley Dollar Jr. in Short Snort, 1st; George Besotes in Kaiser's Stardust, 2nd; Max Collins in Kaiser's Lemme Go First, 3rd.

Junior event (14 HP): Marshall Kruse, 1st; Louis Marden Jr., 2nd; Joe Higginbotham, 3rd.

5½ HP event: Ni Orsi, 1st; Johnny Lang, 2nd; Diana Meek, 3rd.

325 HP and under: Collins in Lemme Go First, 1st; Gil Frye in Rudolph Zimmerman's Zim-A-Ru, 2nd; Lowell Berry in Shooting Star, 3rd.

Hot rod event: Harry Ammon in Candy, 1st; Joe Balcoa in Non-Stop, 2nd; John Fuller in Pee Wee, 3rd.

Ladies Championship: Mrs. H. J. Kaiser in Stardust, 1st; Mrs. Mary Balcao in Non-Stop, 2nd; Bernice Best in Bee Bee, 3rd.

Kaiser's entries won the perpetual trophy by accumulating 10 points, the highest number for the day by any entrant.

Spectacular water skiing exhibitions were seen between each race and little Ni Orsi's "flying saucer" was a sensation. No accidents marred the day's events.

CLUB WOMEN HAVE BUSY DAY AT HOMEWOOD SESSION

TAHOE CITY— Approximately 75 women attended the Tri-County summer conference of federated club women at Homewood Hotel last Friday. The Women's Club of Tahoe acted as hostess for the all-day convention.

The morning session was devoted t reports by club presidents and Tri-County chairmen, with Mrs. Louise Geier, secretary of the local club, delivering the welcoming speech. Mrs. Frances Carlson of Pineland sang three songs, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Charles Beardsley. Mrs. Carlson was dressed in Swedish costume and two of her songs were of that country.

Luncheon was served on the resort's porch, highlighted by a fall fashion show staged by Dixon's Dress Shop at Homewood. Models included Sally Pringle of Meeks Bay, Diane Briner, Beccy Shontz, Audrey Brehler, Patti Scott, Carol Wilson, all Tahoeites; Mildred Watson Collins, San Ansemo; Mrs. Don Huff of Homewood.

Rt. Rev. Noel Porter, Episcopal bishop of Sacramento, addressed the gathering after luncheon, selecting as his theme "The True Meaning and Appreciation of Nature."

Principal speaker of the afternoon session was Mrs. Amer C. Stolp, state president of the federated women's clubs, whose topic was "Federation Sign Posts." She urged "largeness of thought in word and deed," calling for fewer drones and more enthusiasm. She also urged deeper interest in politics on the part of women. Mrs. Stolp invited district chairmen to attend the October 1 and 2 meeting at Hotel Sacramento. Other speakers included Mrs. Guy Rodgers of Durham, northenr district president, and Mrs. Delbert Niegel of Cool, Tri-County president. The September 18 meeting will be under the auspices of the Women's Club of Roseville.

A vote of appreciation was given the Tahoe club and Don Huff, host at the hotel, for the wonderful hospitality, and thanks were also extended for the gifts given Mesdames Stolp and Rodgers.

Mrs. Jeannette Mitchell, president of the Women's Club of Tahoe, presided at the microphone and served as official hostess.

Tahoe Region Thefts Are Investigated

AUBURN— Rev. John Curren of Los Angeles and Rev. John Keene of Belmont, Catholic priests, and the Tahoe City golf course were the victims of burglaries reported to the Placer County sheriff's office.

The priests reported they lost $152 when their wallets were stolen as they slept in a resort in Homewood.

Deputy Sheriff William Scott said small holes had been cut in the tent cabin, apparently to spy on the interior. The wall of the tent had been slashed near the point where the priests had hung their clothes.

Carl Bechdolt Jr., operator of the golf course, said $900 worth of equipment had been taken from a building. Both burglaries occurred August 12.

TAHOE TYCOONS HIGH BIDDERS IN BILTMORE SALE

CRYSTAL BAY— Sanford D. Adler, operator of the Cal-Neva Lodge nearby, was highest bidder in the U. S. government's auction sale of the bankrupt Tahoe Biltmore. However, none of the four bidders for the swank resort and casino property is willing to return to the government its $360,000 RFC investment in the place.

Adler's bid fell $60,000 short of the government's stake and only one bid was for cash.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation became owner of the Biltmore when the bank whose loan it had backed was taken over by another. The RFC rejected all of a group of sealed bids it took last November as too low. All of the latest bids were taken under study by RFC officials in Washington and a decision is expected within 30 days.

Adler's bid was for $330,000 on undisclosed terms. Harold Koplar, St. Louis, Mo., hotel chain owner, put in the only cash offer for $200,000.

Albert Ichelson, owner of Tahoe Tavern, San Francisco hotel man and sportsman, bid $325,000 on terms. Joe Greenbach, owner of hotels in San Francisco, Oakland and Los Angeles, offered $225,000 with one third down and the balance over five years.

The Tahoe Biltmore opened in July, 1948, and closed a year later after losing money steadily. The resort has 32 guest rooms, two suites and extensive gambling and bar facilities.

It was operated by a group, including Sam Termini, Kansas City and San Mateo gambler, recently convicted of income tax evasion.

The Capital National Bank of Sacramento underwrote the original financing and, under the then existing law, committed the RFC to a 75 per cent guarantee of the loan, for $360,000. The Capital National since has been absorbed by Anglo-California National Bank and officials of the latter have termed the loan "ill advised."

Furnishings of the Tahoe Biltmore were sold some time ago for $10,000 at an auction ordered by the RFC in an effort to recover part of its commitment.

Details Bared on Private Life of Flying Gadwalls

©1952 National Wildlife Federation
Gadwall

Gadwalls are sleepy heads in the daytime. When the sun is out, they spend most of the time dozing in the thick grass of marshlands. Only a sudden noise would make them look for a safer spot.

At dusk, the big birds come to life. From twilight until long after dark, they feed around the edges of lonely lakes and sterams and in nearby fields. There they feast on tender water plants, insects, snails, small fish, tadpoles, nuts, and grain.

By the time dawn begins to break, they have eaten their fill and are ready to turn in for a day's rest. Back they go to the marshes, where human beings seldom bother them or their nests.

They build their homes near the water, says the National Wildlife Federation, but always on dry ground. Under a bush or on a broad clump of grass, they collect finely shredded grass for the outer part of the nest. In the center they add a lining of feathers.

The soft nest is finished and ready for use by May. In it the female lays from eight to twelve larke, pale buff or creamy eggs. She sits on them for 28 days to make them hatch.

From their parents, the young quickly learn to be shy, wary ducks. They not only hide and sleep by day, but they also are alert at swimming and diving. The snap of a twig or the flash of a gun is enough to send them plunging for cover.

When fully grown, Gadwalls are about 22 inches long and they weigh two pounds or a little more. In flight they can spread their wings to a total width of thirty-five incres.

Brownish gray is the main color on the male. At the back edges of his wings he has clear patches of white within a border of black and brown. On his lower back and in his tail there are black feathers, but the tip of his tail is gray. His lower neck is dark gray and farther down he is white. His bill is blue and his legs are dull orange.

The female is about the same color, but darker, with more brown mixed in her gray feathers. She is also a bit smaller than the male, and does not make as much noise when she quacks as he does with his loud, shrill kack-kack.

Summer and winter, Gadwalls are birds of the Northern Hemisphere. They spend the spring and summer in Canada, along the Pacific Coast, and eastward into Iowa, Colorado, Minnesota, Ohio, New Mexico, Utah, Texas and Louisiana. A few of them remain in southern Canada for the winter, while others fly to such scattered places as Maryland, lower California, Mexico and southern Florida.

324,000,000 Toll Crossings Over S. F. Bay Bridge

A grand total of 323,885,996 vehicles had passed over the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge as of June 30, 1952, reports the National Automobile Club. These vehicles paid $101,268,310.70 in tolls.

Tahoe Letter

Tahoe City, Aug. 17

Dear Tahoeites—

Today has been beautiful for the big Coast Guard Regatta, staged by Fletilla 35 at Carnelian Bay. It was one of the finest ever staged on our shores, with attendance ranging around several thousand. Events are listed elsewhere in the Sun but a few words are in order regarding the vandal who sabotaged Henry Kaiser's racer, Hot Metal, early this morning, preventing it from being entered in competition. Constable Harry Johanson was called to investigate and tonight declared he may have some promising leads. No one can understand why such a contemptible thing should have been done and Johanson advanced the theory it may have been some crank who had anti-social or communistic tendencies taking their vengeance on Kaiser, prominent industrialist and sportsman. The Hot Metal, which was in the cradle at the boathouse, had been readied for the regatta and it was not until around 7:30 this morning, when the mechanics came to tune her up, that the damage was noticed. Someone had sawed the propellor shaft with a hacksaw and had thrown a coffee can of nuts and bolts into the carburetor. It was reported some five gallons of gasoline had been thrown across another of Kaiser's boats nearby. The hacksaw was left near the damaged boat. Johanson advised Kaiser to leave on floodlights at the boathouse all night from now on and this will be done. It is believed the culprit may have gained entrance by coming in by boat along the lakeshore. Johanson visited the estate on his night patrol shortly after two and found nothing amiss and no strange cars parked in the area. The constable could find no fingerprints at the scene, the culprit apparently donning canvas gloves. The investigation is continuing with aid from the sheriff's office in Auburn.

Have some cards and letters from former Tahoeites of interest to their friends here. The Carlton Valentines of Costa Mesa write from a United Airlines stratoliner en route to Hawaii, where they will vacation, arriving on August 10.

Mrs. Otis Hursey writes from Fallon about her husband's health. He feels pretty good now, is up and around and can do little jobs around the house now but no hard work. Otis and son Bob are making a trip to Oakland this week for his checkup at Pearmanente hospital. He is hoping to visit Tahoe some time next month. Their son, Roger, is taking gun repair training with the Air Force at Lowrey Field in Colorado and gets a 30-day leave September 15. Robert has been doing the chores around the ranch all summer and starts his senior year at high school on September 2. The Hurseys look forward to hearing from their friends at Tahoe and Truckee, so write when you can. Address them simply at Fallon, Nevada.

Lake Tahoe area members of the Poets of Pacific have received a conference bulletin, one of the first to be issued by the dean of trustees, Mrs. Ethel Joslin Vernon of Tahoe City. The pamphlet invites members to submit suggestions and ideas for the founding of a new poetry magazine. The local branch has suspended meetings during the summer season but will resume sessions come fall. Anyone local wishing to join the group should submit samples of their poetry to Mrs. Vernon either by mail or at her home in Tahoe City. Mrs. Marguerite Webb is the latest local resident to be accepted by the Poets of the Pacific. Mrs. Webb was interviewed by Gloria Cohan of the Women's Magazine of the Air recently regarding her Bible Literature chairmanship which she holds with Tri-County. Some of her original poems were read over the air.

Just a word about the Country Carnival which was to have been staged August 29 in Tahoe City by the Lake Tahoe Ski Club and other local organizations. At the meeting of the directors of the club it was decided not enough time remains to put on the affair properly so it has been postponed indefinitely.

Sorry to hear that 12-year-old Tommy Sheehan, son of the Tom Sheehans of Lake Forest, is in Tahoe Forest Hospital. Last Tuesday Tommy was playing with his neighbor, Jay Stuart, and brother Joey, when he fell from a tree in the meadow where they youngsters always play and suffered a broken rib and fractured left arm, along with lesser injuries. He will remain in traction for a week in the hospital and his mother reports he is recuperating very satisfactorily. His many friends wish him a speedy and complete recovery.

Carl Bechdolt Jr., of the Tahoe City golf course, reports he is sponsoring the 3rd annual Tahoe City golf tournament Saturday and Sunday, August 23 and 24. Prizes are being donated by local merchants and resorts. Any local golfer is eligible to enter and juniors up to 16 years old will hold their competition on Saturday, starting at 9 a.m. with the elders starting at 9 a.m. Sunday. Eighteen holes will be played. A cocktail hour will be held at the clubhouse at 5 p.m. Sunday, to be followed at 6 p.m. by distribution of awards. The public is welcome to attend.

Home on a ten-day furlough with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City, was Airman 2c Florence Vernon of Hamilton Field. She is assistant senior recreational specialist for the air base service club. She returned to the base Monday.

Home from service in Korea is George Mitchell of Sutter, brother of Imon Mitchell of Sunnyside. He will wed Miss Doris Ohland of Yuba City in a Marysville church on September 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baker of St. Louis, Mo., and R. J. and Jack LaVeque of Long Beach were at Pomin's Tahoe Park Cottages for a week.

A cheery adios to one and all for this week, as ever,

SWANEE

ALL BIDS REJECTED ON SEWER JOB BY T.C.P.U.D. BOARD

TAHOE CITY— C. W. Vernon, Norman Mayfield and E. H. Pomin, directors of the Tahoe City Public Utility District, opened bids on the proposed sewage plant to be installed at Tahoe City last Thursday evening. All bids were rejected, as only one contractor submitted a complete bid and it was deemed too high. Others explained that because of the short time and their inability to investigate the area and prepare bids they were unable to complete them in time.

Vernon says that because of the lateness of the season it is unlikely that bids will again be advertised for until next spring. In the interim, contractors will be invited to Tahoe City to inspect the area affected. Vernon also stated the engineer who drew the plans might eliminate some details to cut the cost of installation without affecting the efficiency of the plant when completed.

Many of the interested contractors expressed fear that because of the lateness of the season, they would hesitate to tackle the job for fear of having their equipment stranded here by early snow. Nine contractors had planned to submit bids but only three did so. Two of these were for sewer collection lines only. Only the one bid was complete.

You'll save time if you make a personal number list for the whole family

When you've a hurry-up call to make . . . or just for day-to-day convenience in making telephone calls . . . you'll find a list of the numbers you call most often can be a helpful aid to faster service. And because memory often plays tricks, you'll find your personal number list will help you to avoid calling wrong numbers, and save you time when you can't quite recall the number of a friend. If you'd like to keep your number list in a handy, personal directory, just call, send a postcard, or drop in to your nearest Pacific Telephone business office. We'll be glad to give you a free special number booklet.

faster long distance service can be yours, if you give the operator the out-of-town number you're calling rather than just the name and address. That way, you won't have to wait while she gets the number from "Information" in the distant town. So, add out-of-town numbers to your personal list, too.

SUMMIT SCENE

by FRAN COUILLARD

If we had just time enough, we would like to explore the hidden trails and sylvan dells of our caches of beauty that must be back country for therein are caches of beauty that must be stumbled upon. Our ten years in thi sarea as a resident have kept us chained pretty close to the highway. This past Sunday, however, we closed up our place of business for a few hours and answered the invitation to the opening of Foulks Lake at The Cedars. Guy Foulks, tremendously proud of his Native Son status and the fact that his forebears were pioneers of this area, practically celebrated a centennial occasion, for the inscription on the over his holdings reads "Pine-cedar slab that stands guard hurst—1853." The building of the old Foulks estate in this enchanted country has gone on for over half a century and the culmination of Guy's vision of a fitting memorial to his courageous pioneer antecedants was fulfilled this pas sabbath when Foulks Lake was "unveiled" to the public eye. Over 250 guests were present and the plaque imbedded in the Sierra granite of this mountain estate gave evidence of Guy Foulks' great esteem for his birthright. "To the loving memory of Grandmother Euphemia Foulks who with her five children crossed the plains to California in 1853. To A. C. and Josephine B. Freeman and their daughter Mabel V. Romaine and George W. Foulks and all friends of the Valley this plaque is dedicated by Bess and Guy Foulks. A.D. 1952." Soft breezes, filtered through the massive pine and cedar, gently played their part in this momentous day for the Foulks family and kept the festive American and Bear flags in motion around this man-built memorial lake. To Bess and Guy Foulks, Bea and George Foulks, Jack and Mary Mauger and Hazel and Henry Wickert — the Foulks clan — we, fellow Californians, offer our congratulations and sincere admiration for this manifestation of your great esteem and pride in yur heritage.

Last weekend could've been a skiing weekend had there been snow enough on the slopes, for the old guard of skiers were area visitors en masse. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Perone, Don B. Smith, and many, many others were seen cavorting around the hill top. As the morn was quite crisp, ski sweaters were donned and we sincerely hope that said colorful coverings were not harbingers of an early winter.

Our note book says to tell you that pretty Arlene Allen, practically a localite so long has she weekended here, is to be married shortly. September 7 is the date. Arlene recently graduated from Nevada "U" where she was a Phi Beta Phi. The very lucky lad is Daniel Anderson, also a student of the University of Nevada. Dan's father is treasurer of Pershing County in the Silver State. The wedding will be consum- The wedding will be consummated at the Methodist Church in Reno and will be an informal affair with both families present.

This past week brought Helen and Helmer Bergman into the mountain coolness from Watsonville.

We were quite astounded this past week one day when a man walked into our establishment and blandly asked if had a "plug" where he could plug in his television set. Investigation disclosed he had a rigging out in our front yard with a collapsible "reacher" that went up and up to the height of ninety feet. He couldn't make contact with the heavenly waves on our premises, however. He moved the rig up in front of the Soda Springs Hotel and received a "promise" that it might work. Said gent will be back in the area shortly to continue his tests. A goodly gathering accumulated to witness the tests. In the meantime, sports loving mountaineers hied themselves to the Ski Ranch to enjoy (and envy) Jack Woodard's perfect T.V. reception as they watched last week's professional football game from San Francisco's Kezar Stadium.

As often stated, "trouble never comes singly." The same day Percy English of Cisco Grove Lodge was ambulanced to the Tahoe Forest Hospital (where he must remain for a few weeks quietly), Lonnie Goss of Kingvale was brushed off one of his ambitious horses at the Soda Springs stables by an overhanging branch and suffered a couple of broken ribs plus a broken arm. A few days before this double trouble, Lola Dunshee, a Kinvale cabinite, turned her foot on a loose rock in front of her mountain home—results, a broken foot bone.

To thinks more cheerful. A picnic party brought Senator Harold (Bizz) Johnson and family into our domain. "Bizz" came to check on business results of the recent planting of 10,000 catchable size trout in the local fork of the Yuba River. We, for one, could claim an appreciable improvement in the sale of fishing equipment and a definite jump in the sale of angling licenses as compared to former years at this particular season. The senator, whose hard work on the senate interim committee recently brught together sportsmen from all over northern California to instigate the recent plant and stocking of streams, cast his own line into the Yuba and smilingly reported a good catch later in the day.

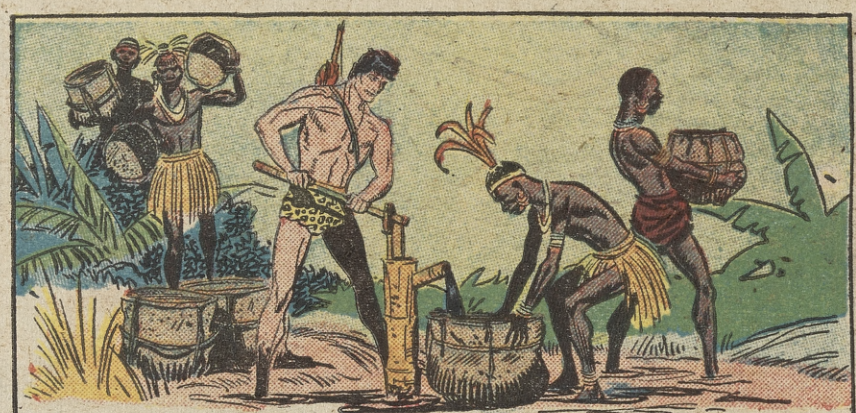
THE APE-MAN'S SUPERHUMAN-STRENGTH HAD JUST GAINED HIM SUCCESS IN HIS DEATH STRUGGLE WITH ONE OF THE POWERFUL ALBINO LIONS.

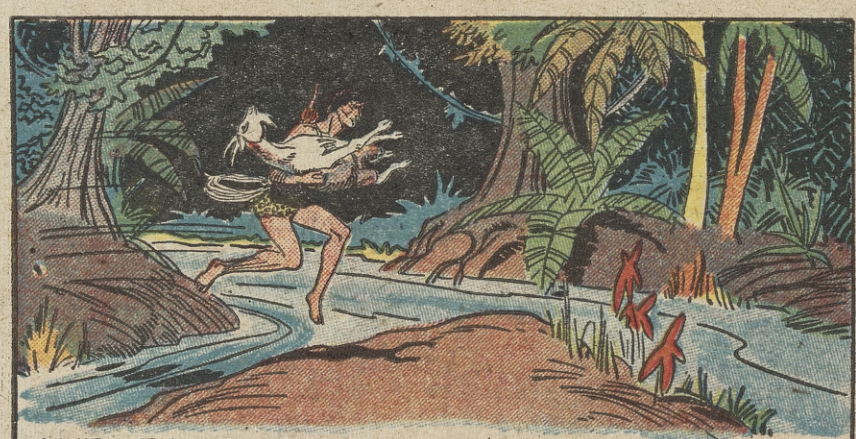
TARZAN EXAMINED THE CARCASS AFTER THE FIGHT, AND WAS PUZZLED BY A BLACK, SLIMY SUBSTANCE THAT COVERED THE SHAGGY WHITE MANE. THE SURROUNDING AREA WAS DOTTED WITH POOLS OF OIL!

IMMEDIATELY HE CONCEIVED AN INGENIOUS PLAN. "THE OTHER LION MUST BE DESTROYED BEFORE YOU HAVE PEACE. COME, MY FRIENDS, LET US MAKE MANY BARRELS OF DEER HIDE!"

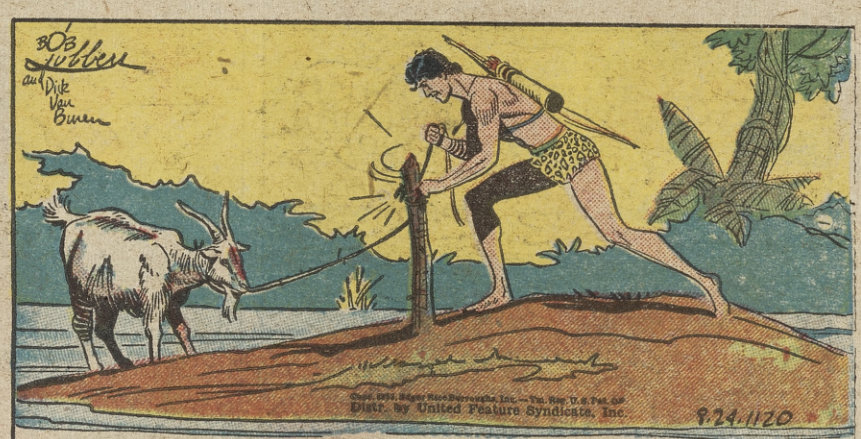


... LATER, THE APE-MAN AND HIS FELLOWS RETURNED TO THE RICH SECTION OF OIL RESOURCE -- AND, WITH THE HELP OF A CRUDE PUMP, FILLED THEIR BARRELS.

THEN THEY CARRIED THEIR PRODUCE TO THE BANKS OF A FAST-FLOWING RIVER. "NOW," SAID TARZAN EXCITEDLY, "SOMEONE GET A FAT, LIVE GOAT FROM THE VILLAGE -- ONE THAT WILL TEMPT NUMA'S PALATE!"



WHEN THE GOAT WAS SECURED, TARZAN HAD THE NATIVES STAND BY THE BARRELS OF OIL ... THEN HE CARRIED THE ANIMAL DOWNSTREAM AND JUMPED OVER TO A SMALL ISLAND.



QUICKLY, HE STAKED OUT THE BAIT FOR A NEW TRAP. "NOW, NUMA," HE MUSED, "WAIT FOR ME TO JOIN THE OTHERS -- THEN COME AND GET YOUR LAST MEAL!"
